The Honorable John Conyers, Jr.
Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

The Honorable Linda Sanchez
Chairwoman
Subcommittee on Commercial and Administrative Law
Committee on the Judiciary
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman and Chairwoman Sanchez:

This responds to your letter of February 28, 2007, requesting personnel data on United States Attorneys and will supplement the material provided to the Congressional Research Service on your behalf.

We have been able to locate additional data on the names and dates of service of United States Attorneys. We are enclosing from the publication, The Bicentennial Celebration of the United States, a listing of United States Attorneys from 1789 to 1994.

We hope that you find this useful. Do not hesitate to contact the Department if we can be of service in other matters.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Hertling
Acting Assistant Attorney General

Dear Mr. Attorney General

We write to follow up on several oral requests by the Congressional Research Service (CRS) and members of our staff for personnel data on United States Attorneys. CRS first contacted the Executive Office of United States Attorneys on January 24, 2007, to seek records on the appointment dates, end dates, and reason for departure of United States Attorneys since 1981.¹ CRS also contacted the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), which maintains the Central Personnel Data File (CPDF), and the Department of Justice Office Legislative Affairs (OLA).² As of the date of this letter, the Department of Justice has only partially responded to these multiple requests. While data has been provided for the period of 1993 to present, the Department of Justice has yet to provide any information from 1981-1993.

We are, therefore, renewing the requests for the start dates, end dates, and reason for departure for each United States Attorney from 1981 to present. To the extent that electronic records are unavailable for this period, we request the production of paper records. Furthermore, if the Department of Justice tracks any reason for departure other than "resigned," we request that information for the entire time period of 1981 to present.

Dear Chairwoman Sanchez:

This responds to your letter, dated February 14, 2007 and Congressman Emanuel's letter, dated February 7, 2007, which requested that former United States Attorney Carol Lam be appointed as outside counsel to finish the investigation relating to former Congressman Cunningham. As you know, Ms. Lam left the Department of Justice on February 15, 2007 and we understand that she began her new private sector position on February 26, 2007. We are sending similar responses to the other Members who joined in your letter to us.

We appreciate your interest in the continuity of our law enforcement efforts stemming from the prosecution of former Congressman Cunningham and want to assure you that the career prosecutors will continue their work with our support. We do not believe that Ms. Lam's departure will negatively impact that investigation in any material respect. As the Attorney General has testified, the Department would not ever seek the resignation of a U.S. Attorney if doing so would jeopardize a public corruption case.

Accordingly, we are not aware of any basis for appointing Ms. Lam as an outside counsel in connection with the Cunningham investigation, particularly since she has assumed a new position outside of the government. The matter also does not present a conflict of interest or other extraordinary circumstances that would warrant the appointment of a Special Counsel pursuant to the Department's regulation. We have no doubt that the investigation will move forward under the able leadership of the career prosecutors in the United States Attorney's Office, who have been long-dedicated to this matter.

The Attorney General has made the prosecution of public corruption one of his priorities, and we appreciate your support of this important work. The Department is justifiably proud of its record of fighting public corruption. In the first five years of this Administration, our United States Attorney's Offices have charged more than 5,500 defendants in public corruption cases and convicted more than 4,800 individuals. During that same time period, the Criminal Division's Public Integrity Section has charged 280 defendants in public corruption cases and convicted more than 250 individuals.

In response to Chairman Conyers' request, we will look forward to briefing the Judiciary Committee on February 28 regarding the recent resignations of several United States Attorneys. Dear Attorney General Gonzales:

Last week, Congressman Emanuel sent you a letter requesting that former U.S. Attorney in San Diego Carol Lam be appointed as outside counsel to finish her work on the Duke Cunningham Case. Unfortunately, your office has not yet responded to that letter.

Two days ago, Lam's investigation continued to bear fruit as a federal grand jury charged Kyle "Dusty" Foggo and Brent Wilkes with at least 11 felony counts related to their involvement with Cunningham. As Elana Schor's article in The Hill yesterday points out, "Justice Department officials have praised the Cunningham probe as the linchpin of their growing pursuit of public corruption cases, yet prosecutor Lam is nonetheless slated to step down [Thursday] after the Bush administration cited unspecified 'performance' issues in requesting her resignation late last year. Six other U.S. attorneys, several involved in ongoing corruption investigations, were dismissed at about the same time."

As you know, of those seven fired U.S. Attorneys, Lam was not the only one investigating sitting public officials before being dismissed. For example, Daniel Bogden of Nevada and Paul Charlton of Arizona were dismissed while their offices were conducting probes concerning elected officials.

Schor's article also notes that Deputy U.S. Attorney General Paul McNulty was scheduled to brief members of the Senate Judiciary Committee yesterday with information on the decisions to dismiss the U.S. Attorneys. During last week's public Senate hearing, Deputy U.S. Attorney General McNulty confirmed that Bud Cummins III, the former U.S. attorney for Eastern Arkansas, was dismissed without cause to install Timothy Griffin, a former aide to White House adviser Karl Rove.

Carol Lam's indictments of Foggo and Wilkes underscore the importance of last week's request and the need for an explanation of why these diligent public servants were dismissed. It is vital that U.S. Attorneys be able to prosecute wrongdoing free from political pressure. We are pleased that the Department of Justice has also agreed to brief members of the House Judiciary Committee on the dismissals of Carol Lam and other U.S. Attorneys. We look forward to further details regarding the date for that briefing and your response regarding the request to appoint Carol Lam as an outside counsel to finish the Cunningham and related investigations.

Thank you for your prompt attention to these matters. We look forward to hearing from your office.

The Honorable Harry Reid
Majority Leader
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Reid:

This is in response to your letter to the Attorney General dated February 8, 2007. An identical response has been sent to the other signatories of that letter.

As an initial matter, the Department agrees with the principle you set forth in your letter that "[o]nce appointed, U.S. Attorneys, perhaps more than any other public servants, must be above politics and beyond reproach; they must be seen to enforce the rule of law without fear or favor." That many U.S. Attorneys, appointed by Presidents of both parties, have had political experience prior to their appointment does not undermine that principle. Your letter, however, contains assumptions and assertions that are simply erroneous.

First, your letter truncates the actual quote of the Attorney General's testimony at the Judiciary Committee hearing on January 18, 2007, and consequently, mischaracterizes the statement. In full, the Attorney General stated: "I think I would never, ever make a change in a United States attorney for political reasons or if it would in any way jeopardize an ongoing serious investigation. I just would not do it" (emphasis added). The Department of Justice rejects any suggestion that U.S. Attorneys were asked or encouraged to resign for the inappropriate "political reason" of interfering with any public corruption case or retaliating against a U.S. Attorney who oversaw such a case.

Second, your letter mischaracterizes the testimony of the Deputy Attorney General given at the hearing held on February 6, 2007. The Deputy Attorney General simply stated the Department's view that asking U.S. Attorney Bud Cummins to resign so that Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Tim Griffin might have the opportunity to serve as U.S. Attorney is not an inappropriate "political reason." This is so, the Deputy Attorney General testified, because, inter alia, Mr. Griffin is very well-qualified to serve as U.S. Attorney, and Mr. Cummins "may have already been thinking about leaving at some point anyway."

DAG000001441

The Honorable Harry Reid
Page Two

Indeed, at the time Mr. Griffin was appointed interim U.S. Attorney in December 2006 he had far more federal prosecution experience (in the Criminal Division and in the U.S. Attorney's office) than Mr. Cummins did at the time he was appointed U.S. Attorney in January 2002. Mr. Cummins himself credits Mr. Griffin with the establishment of that office's successful gun-crime prosecution initiative. And Mr. Griffin has substantial military prosecution experience that Mr. Cummins does not have. Those who know Mr. Griffin must concede that he brings a style of leadership and level of energy that could only enhance the success of a U.S. Attorney's office. Moreover, it was well-known, as early as December 2004, that Mr. Cummins intended to leave the office and seek employment in the private sector. See "The Insider Dec. 30," Ark. Times (Dec. 30, 2004) ("Cummins, 45, said that, with four children to put through college someday, he'll likely begin exploring career options. It wouldn't be 'shocking,' he said, for there to be a change in his office before the end of Bush's second term."). Finally, the Deputy Attorney General did not state or imply that Mr. Griffin would be appointed as the U.S. Attorney without Senate confirmation. Such a statement would be inconsistent with the Department's stated position that we are committed to having a Senate-confirmed U.S. Attorney in all 94 federal districts.

Third, the Department does not consider the replacement of one Republican U.S. Attorney by another Republican lawyer who is well-qualified and has extensive experience as a prosecutor and strong ties to the district to be a change made for "political reasons." Mr. Cummins was confirmed to serve a four-year term, which expired on January 9, 2006. He served his entire term, plus an additional year. United States Attorneys serve at the pleasure of the President; that has always been the rule, and U.S. Attorneys accept their appointment with that understanding.

In answer to your specific questions:

- Although the decision to have Mr. Griffin replace Mr. Cummins was first contemplated in the spring or summer of 2006, the final decision to appoint Mr. Griffin to be interim U.S. Attorney in the Eastern District of Arkansas was made on or about December 15, 2006, after the Attorney General had spoken with Senator Pryor.
- The Department of Justice is not aware of anyone lobbying for Mr. Griffin's appointment. Consistent with longstanding Administration practice, the decision regarding whether Mr. Griffin (who then was on active military duty) might be considered for appointment as U.S. Attorney upon his return from Iraq was discussed and made jointly by the Department of Justice and the White House.

DAG000001442

The Honorable Harry Reid

- As the Deputy Attorney General testified, Mr. Cummins's continued service as U.S. Attorney was not considered at the same time as the other U.S. Attorneys that the Deputy Attorney General acknowledged were asked to resign for reasons related to their performance. As the Deputy Attorney General testified, the request that Mr. Cummins resign was "related to the opportunity to provide a fresh start with a new person in that position."
- The Department is not aware of Karl Rove playing any role in the decision to appoint Mr. Griffin.

We appreciate the opportunity to respond to your inquiry.

Indeed, at the time Mr. Griffin was appointed interim U.S. Attorney in December 2006 he had far more federal prosecution experience (in the Criminal Division and in the U.S. Attorney's office) than Mr. Cummins did at the time he was appointed U.S. Attorney in January 2002. Mr. Cummins himself credits Mr. Griffin with the establishment of that office's successful gun-crime prosecution initiative. And Mr. Griffin has substantial military prosecution experience that Mr. Cummins does not have. Those who know Mr. Griffin must concede that he brings a style of leadership and level of energy that could only enhance the success of a U.S. Attorney's office. Moreover, it was well-known, as early as December 2004, that Mr. Cummins intended to leave the office and seek employment in the private sector. See "The Insider Dec. 30," Ark. Times (Dec. 30, 2004) ("Cummins, 45, said that, with four children to put through college someday, he'll likely begin exploring career options. It wouldn't be 'shocking,' he said, for there to be a change in his office before the end of Bush's second term."). Finally, the Deputy Attorney General did not state or imply that Mr. Griffin would be appointed as the U.S. Attorney without Senate confirmation. Such a statement would be inconsistent with the Department's stated position that we are committed to having a Senate-confirmed U.S. Attorney in all 94 federal districts.

Third, the Department does not consider the replacement of one Republican U.S. Attorney by another Republican lawyer who is well-qualified and has extensive experience as a prosecutor and strong ties to the district to be a change made for "political reasons." Mr. Cummins was confirmed to serve a four-year term, which expired on January 9, 2006. He served his entire term, plus an additional year. United States Attorneys serve at the pleasure of the President; that has always been the rule, and U.S. Attorneys accept their appointment with that understanding.

In answer to your specific questions:

- Although the decision to have Mr. Griffin replace Mr. Cummins was first contemplated in the spring or summer of 2006, the final decision to appoint Mr. Griffin to be interim U.S. Attorney in the Eastern District of Arkansas was made on or about December 15, 2006, after the Attorney General had spoken with Senator Pryor.
- The Department of Justice is not aware of anyone lobbying for Mr. Griffin's appointment. Consistent with longstanding Administration practice, the decision regarding whether Mr. Griffin (who then was on active military duty) might be considered for appointment as U.S. Attorney upon his return from Iraq was discussed and made jointly by the Department of Justice and the White House.

- As the Deputy Attorney General testified, Mr. Cummins's continued service as U.S. Attorney was not considered at the same time as the other U.S. Attorneys that the Deputy Attorney General acknowledged were asked to resign for reasons related to their performance. As the Deputy Attorney General testified, the request that Mr. Cummins resign was "related to the opportunity to provide a fresh start with a new person in that position."
- The Department is not aware of Karl Rove playing any role in the decision to appoint Mr. Griffin.

Dear Senator Murray:

This is in response to your letter to the Attorney General dated February 8, 2007. An identical response has been sent to the other signatories of that letter.

As an initial matter, the Department agrees with the principle you set forth in your letter that "[o]nce appointed, U.S. Attorneys, perhaps more than any other public servants, must be above politics and beyond reproach; they must be seen to enforce the rule of law without fear or favor." That many U.S. Attorneys, appointed by Presidents of both parties, have had political experience prior to their appointment does not undermine that principle. Your letter, however, contains assumptions and assertions that are simply erroneous.

First, your letter truncates the actual quote of the Attorney General's testimony at the Judiciary Committee hearing on January 18, 2007, and consequently, mischaracterizes the statement. In full, the Attorney General stated: "I think I would never, ever make a change in a United States attorney for political reasons or if it would in any way jeopardize an ongoing serious investigation. I just would not do it" (emphasis added). The Department of Justice rejects any suggestion that U.S. Attorneys were asked or encouraged to resign for the inappropriate "political reason" of interfering with any public corruption case or retaliating against a U.S. Attorney who oversaw such a case.

Second, your letter mischaracterizes the testimony of the Deputy Attorney General given at the hearing held on February 6, 2007. The Deputy Attorney General simply stated the Department's view that asking U.S. Attorney Bud Cummins to resign so that Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Tim Griffin might have the opportunity to serve as U.S. Attorney is not an inappropriate "political reason." This is so, the Deputy Attorney General testified, because, inter alia, Mr. Griffin is very well-qualified to serve as U.S. Attorney, and Mr. Cummins "may have already been thinking about leaving at some point anyway."

The Honorable Alberto R. Gonzales
Attorney General of the United States
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20530-0001

Dear Attorney General Gonzales:

As you know, the Senate Judiciary Committee held a hearing this week to examine the growing politicization of the hiring and firing of United States Attorneys, our nation's top federal prosecutors.

Unfortunately, the hearing only served to intensify, rather than assuage, our concerns, particularly given the circumstances surrounding the ouster of Bud Cummins, who was the U.S. Attorney in the Eastern District of Arkansas until last December.

When you testified before the Committee on January 18, 2007, you stated unequivocally that you "would never, ever make a change in a U.S. Attorney position for political reasons." In a stunning admission, however, Deputy Attorney General Paul McNulty, in his own testimony on February 6th, acknowledged that Mr. Cummins was pushed out for no reason other than to install - without Senate confirmation - Tim Griffin, a former aide to Karl Rove. At the time, Mr. Griffin had minimal federal prosecution experience, but was highly skilled in opposition research and partisan attacks for the Republican National Committee. This strikes us as a quintessentially "political" reason to make a change.

We recognize, of course, that United States Attorneys serve at the pleasure of the President, but as several highly respected and distinguished former officials of the Department of Justice have noted, the dismissal of a well-respected U.S. Attorney simply to reward an inexperienced partisan is unprecedented.

Although Senators expect soon to be briefed privately about the alleged performance issues of several other U.S. Attorneys, we hope that you will quickly and publicly address the most troubling aspects of the Cummins ouster and Griffin appointment. We look forward to a fuller explanation of why a concededly well-performing prosecutor was terminated in favor of such a partisan figure:

- In particular, when was the decision made to appoint Tim Griffin to replace Bud Cummins?

DAG000001453

- Specifically, who lobbied on behalf of Tim Griffin's appointment, both inside and outside the Administration?
- Why was Bud Cummins told to resign in June of 2006, when the other dismissed officials were told in December of 2006? Was the reason to give the replacement, Tim Griffin, a chance to become ensconced at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Arkansas before making the appointment?
- In light of the unprecedented nature of the appointment, we are especially interested in understanding the role played by Karl Rove. In particular, what role did Karl Rove, with whom Griffin was closely associated, play in the decision to appoint Griffin?

Given that Mr. Rove was himself apparently still being investigated by a U.S. Attorney in June of 2006, it would be extremely untoward if he were at the same time leading the charge to oust a sitting U.S. Attorney and install his own former aide.

These questions go to the heart of the public's confidence in the fair administration of justice. Once appointed, U.S. Attorneys, perhaps more than any other public servant, must be above politics and beyond reproach; they must be seen to enforce the rule of law without fear or favor.

Given the issues raised in the recent hearing, we are naturally concerned about the Administration's professed commitment to keeping politics out of the Department of Justice. We hope that you will quickly put those concerns to rest.

Sincerely,

Mark

Dear Attorney General Gonzales:

As you are aware, there are many questions surrounding the recent dismissal of seven U.S. Attorneys, including whether or not your office has the authority to dismiss these individuals, and if their firings were politically motivated. These questions will hopefully be answered in good time, but in order to separate the question of authority from the question of political motivation, I am writing specifically about the case of Carol Lam.

Carol Lam served as the U.S. Attorney in San Diego from September, 2002 until her dismissal last month. According to the San Diego Union-Tribune, Ms. Lam was fired because her superiors were unhappy with her results on crime and immigration prosecutions. In the latest data, San Diego ranked second in terms of immigration prosecutions, and Ms. Lam had recently convicted the chiefs of Golden State Fence Co. for hiring illegal immigrants. Since Lam's appointment as a U.S. Attorney, violent crime has fallen 2.4% for the San Diego area.

Previously, Lam was praised by former Attorney General Ashcroft for her role in securing a guilty plea by Muhamed Abid Afridi and Ilyas Ali on felony charges of conspiracy to provide material support to terrorists. Lam's record is one that should make the Department of Justice proud.

Yet Carol Lam is best known for her successful investigation and prosecution of former Congressman Duke Cunningham. Former Congressman Cunningham is currently serving jail time, but Ms. Lam's investigation had not ended at the time of her dismissal. In fact, she was in the process of investigating whether or not the corruption involved other Members of Congress and lobbyists, as well as current and former members of the national security apparatus. It is for this reason that the timing of her dismissal raises serious and troubling questions. In fact, special agent in charge Dan Dzwilewski – the FBI's top official for San Diego – said, "I guarantee politics is involved...It will be a huge loss from my perspective."

To remove the cloud of politics over Ms. Lam's dismissal, and to ensure there are no delays in the investigation of the Cunningham matter, I call on you to immediately name Carol Lam as outside counsel with all necessary resources to continue her excellent work on the Cunningham case and related matters.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator Pryor:

This is in response to your letter to the Attorney General dated January 11, 2007, regarding the Attorney General's appointment of J. Timothy Griffin to serve as interim United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Arkansas.

As the Attorney General informed you in his telephone conversations with you on December 13, 2006, and December 15, 2006, Mr. Griffin was chosen for appointment to serve as interim United States Attorney because of his excellent qualifications. To be clear, Mr. Griffin was not chosen because the First Assistant United States Attorney was on maternity leave and therefore was not able to serve as your letter states. As you know, Mr. Griffin has federal prosecution experience both in the Eastern District of Arkansas and in the Criminal Division in Washington, D.C. During his service in the Eastern District of Arkansas, Mr. Griffin established that district's successful Project Safe Neighborhoods initiative to reduce firearms-related violence. In addition, Mr. Griffin has served for more than a decade in the U.S. Army Reserve, Judge Advocate General's Corps, for whom he has prosecuted more than 40 criminal cases, including cases of national significance. Mr. Griffin's military experience includes recent service in Iraq, for which he was awarded the Combat Action Badge and the Army Commendation Medal. Importantly, Mr. Griffin is a "real Arkansan" with genuine ties to the community. Based on these qualifications, Mr. Griffin was selected to serve as interim United States Attorney.

As the Attorney General also has stated to you, the Administration is committed to having a Senate-confirmed United States Attorney for all 94 federal districts. At no time has the Administration sought to avoid the Senate confirmation process by appointing an interim United States Attorney and then refusing to move forward, in consultation with home-State Senators, on the selection, nomination and confirmation of a new United States Attorney. Not once.

DAG000001458

Letter to the Honorable Mark Pryor

The Eastern District of Arkansas is not different. As the Attorney General stated to you again two weeks ago, in a telephone conversation on January 17, 2007, the Administration is committed to having a Senate-confirmed United States Attorney in that district too. That is why the Administration has consulted with you and Senator Lincoln for several months now regarding possible candidates for nomination, including Mr. Griffin. That is why the Attorney General has sought your views as to whether, if nominated, you would support Mr. Griffin's confirmation. The Administration awaits your decision.

If you decide that you would support Mr. Griffin's confirmation, then the President's senior advisors (after taking into account Senator Lincoln's views) likely would recommend that the President nominate him. With your support, Mr. Griffin almost certainly would be confirmed and appointed. We are convinced that, given his strong record as a federal prosecutor and as a military prosecutor, Mr. Griffin would serve ably as a Senate-confirmed United States Attorney. If, in contrast, you decide that for whatever reason you will not support Mr. Griffin's confirmation, then the Administration looks forward to considering any alternative candidates for nomination that you might put forward. In any event, your views (and the views of Senator Lincoln) will be given substantial weight in determining what recommendation to make to the President regarding who is nominated.

Last year's amendment to the Attorney General's appointment authority was necessary and appropriate. Prior to the amendment, the Attorney General could appoint an interim United States Attorney for only 120 days; thereafter, the district court was authorized to appoint an interim United States Attorney. In cases where a Senate-confirmed United States Attorney could not be appointed within 120 days, the limitation on the Attorney General's appointment authority resulted in numerous, recurring problems. For example, some district courts – recognizing the oddity of members of one branch of government appointing officers of another and the conflicts inherent in the appointment of an interim United States Attorney who would then have many matters before the court – refused to exercise the court appointment authority, thereby requiring the Attorney General to make successive, 120-day appointments. In contrast, other district courts – ignoring the oddity and the inherent conflicts – sought to appoint as interim United States Attorney wholly unacceptable candidates who did not have the appropriate experience or the necessary clearances. Contrary to your letter, nothing in the text or history of the statute even suggests that the Attorney General should articulate a national security or law enforcement need for making an interim appointment. Because the Administration is committed to having a Senate-confirmed United States Attorney for all 94 federal districts, changing the law to restore the limitations on the Attorney General's appointment authority is unnecessary.

Enclosed is information regarding the exercise of the Attorney General's authority to appoint interim United States Attorneys. As you will see, the enclosed information establishes conclusively that the Administration is committed to having a Senate-confirmed United States Attorney in all 94 federal districts. Indeed, every single time

Letter to the Honorable Mark Pryor

that a United States Attorney vacancy has arisen, the President either has made a nomination or – as with the Eastern District of Arkansas – the Administration is working, in consultation with home-State Senators, to select a candidate for nomination. Such nominations are, of course, subject to Senate confirmation.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Hertling
Acting Assistant Attorney General

FACT SHEET: UNITED STATES ATTORNEY APPOINTMENTS.

NOMINATIONS AFTER AMENDMENT TO ATTORNEY GENERAL'S APPOINTMENT AUTHORITY

Since March 9, 2006, when the Congress amended the Attorney General's authority to appoint interim United States Attorneys, the President has nominated 15 individuals to serve as United States Attorney. The 15 nominations are:

- Erik Peterson – Western District of Wisconsin;
- Charles Rosenberg – Eastern District of Virginia;
- Thomas Anderson – District of Vermont;
- Martin Jackley – District of South Dakota;
- Alexander Acosta – Southern District of Florida;
- Troy Eid – District of Colorado;
- Phillip Green – Southern District of Illinois;
- George Holding – Eastern District of North Carolina;
- Sharon Potter – Northern District of West Virginia;
- Brett Tolman – District of Utah;
- Rodger Heaton – Central District of Illinois;
- Deborah Rhodes – Southern District of Alabama;
- Rachel Paulose – District of Minnesota;
- John Wood – Western District of Missouri; and
- Rosa Rodriguez-Velez – District of Puerto Rico.

All but Phillip Green, John Wood, and Rosa Rodriguez-Velez have been confirmed by the Senate.

VACANCIES AFTER AMENDMENT TO ATTORNEY GENERAL'S APPOINTMENT AUTHORITY

Since March 9, 2006, there have been 13 new U.S. Attorney vacancies that have arisen. They have been filled as noted below.

For 4 of the 13 vacancies, the First Assistant United States Attorney (FAUSA) in the district was selected to lead the office in an acting capacity under the Vacancies Reform Act, see 5 U.S.C. § 3345(a)(1) (first assistant may serve in acting capacity for 210 days unless a nomination is made) until a nomination could be or can be submitted to the Senate. Those districts are:

- Central District of California – FAUSA George Cardona is acting United States Attorney
- Southern District of Illinois – FAUSA Randy Massey is acting United States Attorney (a nomination was made last Congress for Phillip Green, but confirmation did not occur);

DAG000001461

- Eastern District of North Carolina – FAUSA George Holding served as acting United States Attorney (Holding was nominated and confirmed);
- Northern District of West Virginia – FAUSA Rita Valdrini served as acting United States Attorney (Sharon Potter was nominated and confirmed).

For 1 vacancy, the Department first selected the First Assistant United States Attorney to lead the office in an acting capacity under the Vacancies Reform Act, but the First Assistant retired a month later. At that point, the Department selected another employee to serve as interim United States Attorney until a nomination could be submitted to the Senate, see 28 U.S.C. § 546(a) (“Attorney General may appoint a United States attorney for the district in which the office of United States attorney is vacant”). This district is:

- Northern District of Iowa – FAUSA Judi Whetstone was acting United States Attorney until she retired and Matt Dummermuth was appointed interim United States Attorney.

For 8 of the 13 vacancies, the Department selected another Department employee to serve as interim United States Attorney until a nomination could be submitted to the Senate, see 28 U.S.C. § 546(a) (“Attorney General may appoint a United States attorney for the district in which the office of United States attorney is vacant”). Those districts are:

- Eastern District of Virginia – Pending nominee Chuck Rosenberg was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned to be appointed Deputy Attorney General (Rosenberg was confirmed shortly thereafter);
- Eastern District of Arkansas – Tim Griffin was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned;
- District of Columbia – Jeff Taylor was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned to be appointed Assistant Attorney General for the National Security Division;
- District of Nebraska – Joe Stecher was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned to be appointed Chief Justice of Nebraska Supreme Court;
- Middle District of Tennessee – Craig Morford was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned;
- Western District of Missouri – Brad Schlozman was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney and FAUSA resigned at the same time (John Wood was nominated);
- Western District of Washington – Jeff Sullivan was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned; and
- District of Arizona – Dan Knauss was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned.

DAG000001462

ATTORNEY GENERAL APPOINTMENTS AFTER AMENDMENT TO ATTORNEY GENERAL'S APPOINTMENT AUTHORITY

The Attorney General has exercised the authority to appoint interim United States Attorneys a total of 12 times since the authority was amended in March 2006.

In 2 of the 12 cases, the FAUSA had been serving as acting United States Attorney under the Vacancies Reform Act (VRA), but the VRA's 210-day period expired before a nomination could be made. Thereafter, the Attorney General appointed that same FAUSA to serve as interim United States Attorney. These districts include:

- District of Puerto Rico – Rosa Rodriguez-Velez (Rodriguez-Velez has been nominated); and
- Eastern District of Tennessee – Russ Dedrick

In 1 case, the FAUSA had been serving as acting United States Attorney under the VRA, but the VRA's 210-day period expired before a nomination could be made. Thereafter, the Attorney General appointed another Department employee to serve as interim United States Attorney until a nomination could be submitted to the Senate. That district is:

- District of Alaska – Nelson Cohen

In 1 case, the Department originally selected the First Assistant to serve as acting United States Attorney; however, she retired from federal service a month later. At that point, the Department selected another Department employee to serve as interim United States Attorney until a nomination could be submitted to the Senate. That district is:

- Northern District of Iowa – Matt Dummermuth

In the 8 remaining cases, the Department selected another Department employee to serve as interim United States Attorney until a nomination could be submitted to the Senate. Those districts are:

- Eastern District of Virginia – Pending nominee Chuck Rosenberg was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned to be appointed Deputy Attorney General (Rosenberg was confirmed shortly thereafter);
- Eastern District of Arkansas – Tim Griffin was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned;
- District of Columbia – Jeff Taylor was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned to be appointed Assistant Attorney General for the National Security Division;
- District of Nebraska – Joe Stecher was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned to be appointed Chief Justice of Nebraska Supreme Court;

DAG000001463

- Middle District of Tennessee – Craig Morford was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned;
- Western District of Missouri – Brad Schlozman was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney and FAUSA resigned at the same time (John Wood was nominated);
- Western District of Washington – Jeff Sullivan was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned; and
- District of Arizona – Dan Knauss was appointed interim United States Attorney when incumbent United States Attorney resigned.

The Honorable Alberto Gonzales
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Ave, NW
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Attorney General Gonzales:

I am writing this letter to express my displeasure regarding your appointment of Tim Griffin as Interim U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Arkansas. As you will recall, we discussed this matter in two telephone calls (Wednesday December 13, 2006, and December 15, 2006) in which I informed you of my reservations.

First, it is clear (from events that occurred in July and August 2006), that there was an attempt to force then U.S. Attorney Cummins to resign. At that time, my office expressed my concern to the White House Counsel regarding this matter, and Mr. Cummins was able to remain in his position until the end of December. While I am pleased that his service was extended, I am left with the conclusion that the purpose for the dismissal of Mr. Cummins was to appoint Mr. Griffin.

Second, I am astonished that the reason given by your office for the interim appointment is that the First Assistant U.S. Attorney is on maternity leave and therefore would not be able to perform the responsibilities of the appointment. This reason was given to my Chief of Staff, to the news media, and to me by your liaison in a meeting this week. This concerns me on several levels, but most importantly it uses pregnancy and motherhood as conditions that deny an appointment. While this may not be actionable in a public employment setting, it clearly would be in a private employment setting. The U.S. Department of Justice should never discriminate against women in this manner.

Finally, and most importantly, the appointment undermines the Senate confirmation process. The authority granted to the Attorney General to make an interim appointment for an indefinite time was given pursuant to the Patriot Act. I believe that in using this provision, the Attorney General should articulate a national security or law enforcement need that necessitates such an appointment. You have failed to do so in this case. In fact, as cited above, the reason articulated is at worst grossly deficient, and at best, a poor pretense.

DAG00001465

For me personally this last point is most troublesome. When the Patriot Act was up for reauthorization, you called me and discussed the importance of its passage. I told you that while there were items in the Act that concerned me, I trusted that the spirit of the law would be upheld. It has also come to my attention that there may have been other similar appointments made under this provision of the Patriot Act. Therefore, I believe that the spirit of the law regarding this interim appointment (and perhaps others) has been violated. As such, I am pushing for a legislative change. I have signed on to a bill that would strike the previous amended language and restore appointment authority to the original 120 days.

I am quite sure that you may not agree with some or all of my conclusions, therefore, I await your response and I appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mark Pryor

Dear Chairman Conyers and Representative Berman:

This is in response to your letter, dated January 17, 2007, regarding Carol Lam's resignation as United States Attorney for the Southern District of California.

Your letter's suggestion that Ms. Lam was asked or encouraged to resign in an effort to disrupt an ongoing public corruption investigation is categorically untrue. United States Attorneys never are removed, or asked or encouraged to resign, in an effort to disrupt any particular investigation, criminal prosecution or civil case – including any public corruption case. Any suggestion to the contrary simply is irresponsible. Indeed, the Attorney General has directed United States Attorneys to prosecute public corruption vigorously. A fair examination of the Department of Justice's performance in this area clearly demonstrates the Department's commitment to protect the integrity of government by rooting out public corruption – whenever it is found and whoever is implicated.

Moreover, the removal of a United States Attorney to impede an ongoing public corruption investigation would be entirely ineffective. Public corruption investigations typically involve many agents and prosecutors. The departure of the United States Attorney, for whatever reason, does not stop or even slow the investigation. Given the occasional turnover of United States Attorneys, career investigators and prosecutors exercise direct responsibility for nearly all such cases.

United States Attorneys serve at the pleasure of the President. Like other high-ranking Executive Branch officials, they may be removed for any reason or no reason. The Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General are responsible for evaluating the performance of the United States Attorneys and ensuring that they are leading their offices effectively. That on occasion in an organization as large as the Justice Department some United States Attorneys resign – for whatever reason – should come as no surprise.

With regard to the upcoming United States Attorney vacancy in the Southern District of California, the Department will select a person to serve temporarily as United States Attorney until a Senate-confirmed United States Attorney is appointed, and the Administration will consult with home-State Senators to select a person to be nominated, confirmed and appointed. Please be assured that both persons will be experienced lawyers who are committed to the Department's priorities – including the vigorous prosecution of public corruption.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Hertling

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

In the last week, we learned that the Administration has asked for the resignation of Carol Lam, United States Attorney for the Southern District of California. Ms. Lam announced yesterday that she has submitted her resignation effective February 15th.

Prior to her appointment as U.S. Attorney, Ms. Lam was a San Diego Superior Court Judge and a career prosecutor. Since her appointment as U.S. Attorney in 2002, we have heard no suggestion that she was either unqualified for the position or that she was guilty of misconduct in her office.

To the contrary, since word of the Administration's effort to remove Ms. Lam surfaced, reports in the San Diego Union-Tribune quote other prosecutors and defense lawyers as being "universally shocked" by her impending dismissal. San Diego's City Attorney called Lam, "the most outstanding U.S. Attorney we've ever had." The head of the FBI office in San Diego called Lam "crucial to the success of multiple ongoing investigations" adding that she "has an excellent reputation and has done an excellent job."

Given this praise and concern for the potential ramifications of her sudden departure, we are perplexed as to why you have chosen to remove Ms. Lam from the U.S. Attorneys' office in San Diego now. The one reason we've heard suggested for her dismissal was a decrease in immigration-related prosecutions, yet in the months of May, June and July of 2006, the U.S. Attorneys' Office in the Southern District of California was one of the top three USAOs in immigration prosecutions, hardly a record that would lead to removal.

At the moment, Ms. Lam is leading an office in the middle of a high-profile public corruption investigation. While the work on this investigation led to the conviction of former-Rep. Cunningham, a number of other corruption probes have grown out of the case and are still pending. We do not doubt that removing Ms. Lam from the U.S. Attorneys' office in San Diego now will disrupt this investigation.

Forcing Ms. Lam's resignation now leaves the appearance that this growing public corruption probe may be part of the Administration's motivation in removing her. If this is untrue, it is vitally important that this perception be corrected, and we ask you to share with us the basis of your request for her resignation.

Sincerely,
